ENERGY HEDGE FUND CENTER

EnergyHedgeFunds.com

The Energy Hedge Fund Center

The Energy Hedge Fund Center (EHFC) is the first free web community specifically created for those interested in monitoring and understanding the activities of hedge funds in the energy and environmental industry. Users have access to news, articles, polls and other information on energy hedge funds and their activities. Members of the community receive a daily email highlighting site updates.

The Energy Hedge Fund Site also provides a number of products including:

The EHFC Directory of Energy Hedge Funds

The Energy Hedge Fund Centers' Directory of Energy Hedge Funds now has more than 350 hedge funds listed and over 150 subscribers. Available by annual subscription, subscribers receive an initial copy and 11 monthly updates. An annual subscription costs $995.

Reports

EHFC's latest report, "Energy as an Alternative Asset Class for Hedge Fund Diversification" is available for sale at the website

On-Line/Private Seminars

EHFC online and private seminars have been attended by over 250 participants to date. Online seminars are scheduled every two months and a schedule is posted at the Energy Hedge Fund Center website.

EHFC consultants also provide private seminars and briefings. Please contact us for details and pricing.

Energy Hedge—Newsletter

Energy Hedge is a twice monthly electronic (PDF) publication available for an annual subscription of $99.

It is edited by the co-principals of the Energy Hedge Fund Center and covers topics relating to the energy, alternative investment and environmental industries.

Site Sponsorships and Advertising

With more than 500 visits per day, the Energy Hedge Fund Center can provide an invaluable advertising opportunity via banner advertising or site sponsorships.
